

Soaring with the Christ Over Ultimate Destinyland

One night last year as I went to bed, the music from Uoaring over California was alive in my heart. As I sat and meditated, looking at images of Jesus, I replayed in my mind and heart all of the visioning work I've done with EAGLES and I began to think and feel I was actually soaring with the Christ. Several times during the night as I turned or got up to go to the bathroom, the enjoyment continued. The next morning when I woke up, the sensation continued.

I felt peaceful, grateful and blessed. Of course I realized that the recent trip to Disneyland with Genii, Sarah, Nancy, Susan and her family and our Uoaring over California was the reason I was so in tune with the music and the sensation. I wondered what a ride on Genii's magic carpet over Ultimate Destinyland would look like and how we would feel on the ride.

What would we see and feel?

We would see millions of people blessed, happy, more fulfilled and productive.

We would feel grateful, humble and blessed to have helped.

We would see children fully realizing o qtg"qh"their potential. "

We would see thousands of Centers for Spiritual and Successful Living all over the world staffed with our trained facilitators blessing millions of people.

We would feel honored to have been blessed to help bring forth this divine design.

We would see dozens of spiritually based intentional communities and Retreat Center's all over the world. We would feel peaceful, joyful, and at home in that CENTER SPACE

We would see several beautiful corporate campuses where companies and nonprofit organizations and partners base their operations to foster spiritual, personal, organizational, and community empowerment, enlightenment and transformation

We would feel grateful, proud and thankful for the solid foundation under the "castle's we had built in the air" as Thoreau said. The legacy lives on.

We would see that many more people are more self actualized, families and other relationships will be stronger, more nurturing and supportive.

Millions of people will be enjoying far more meaningful and fulfilling lives and jobs.

We and our companies and nonprofit organizations are prosperous and successful as authors, creators, publishers and producers of programs, products and services that help individuals, organizations, communities, countries and the planet.

Thousands of Ultimate Destinyland Centers help millions of people awaken and realize more of their inherent potential and know how to fulfill their purpose and Ultimate Destiny.
